

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

C. UNDERWOOD—UNDERWOOD

THINGS ARE GOING SWIMMINGLY in the United States Bureau of Fisheries these days because Henry O'Malley knows every fish in the world by its first name and has taken charge of the bureau. He discovered a salt solution which separates dead fish eggs from live ones.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

SWEET SUE'S SWEATER is considered in the height of fashion for summer wear. It is called a white and gold slipover, with horizontal gold zigzag stripes.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

A FLOATING HARDWARE STORE is the latest accommodation for seafaring folk. It will no longer be necessary for them to go ashore to buy anything they need for the operation of gasoline or sailing vessels because they can shop at sea. Beyond the three-mile limit the assortment of goods handled by the storekeeper becomes larger and more enspiriting.

PHOTOGRAPHS

SHE PACKS A HAY-MAKER in both mitts. This is Mlle. Jeanne La Mar, of France, French feminine fistic champion, who is training for a bout with Miss Laura Bennett, American champion.

C. INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

POISON PEN BLACKMAILER Eugene Bryant, made life miserable for members of Chicago's smart set by writing them threatening letters until he was caught while claiming a package of money left at the designated place by a victim.

C. UNDERWOOD—UNDERWOOD

THE HERO OF THE FUTURE honors the hero of the past. More than 200 Washington Boy Scouts, representing the patriotism and love of the nation, placed an American flag near each of "the little green tents" beneath which the country's heroes sleep in Arlington.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

CHARLES DARCK'S FOURTH WIFE is suing him for divorce. She says he was married to him twice but one decree will serve to dissolve both unions. Charles' frequent trips from Chicago to Kankakee aroused her suspicions, but when an artist's model named Jean telephoned her and said "come over to my apartment and see your husband make love to me," school was out.

C. UNDERWOOD—UNDERWOOD

THEY'RE POPULAR now and are getting more so every day. At left, Orme Thompson, instructor at the Tidal Basin, right Gordon Leach, proprietor of that resort.

P. AND A.

THESE CHILDREN, Lillian and Michael Condon, jr., of Chicago, saw their father kill their mother. They are shown telling Assistant States Attorney Hodges their version of the tragedy. With them is their aunt, Mrs. Mary Culbertson. Their stories may cause the execution of their father.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

LOADED AND REELING, the S. S. Resolute staggered into New York harbor with a bad list to port due to a shifting of her cargo which threatened harm for some time.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

KU KLUXERS KANNED Town Marshall Frank Woerner, of Inglewood, Cal., for breaking up one of their raids. Other citizens gave him a gold medal.

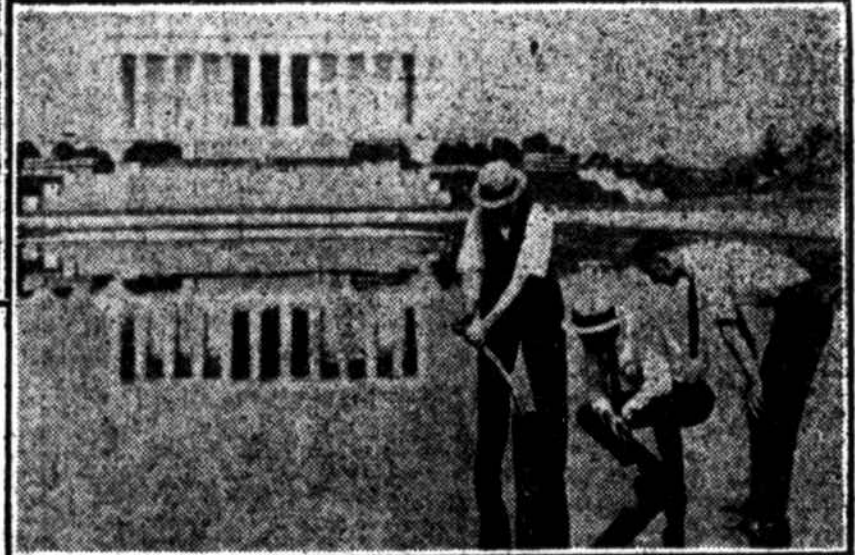

C. INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

"BEWARE OF WIDOWS; THEY'RE LOVE PIRATES." says Mrs. Thomas R. Rollo who has just been unspliced from her Windy City husband who pretended to go to the movies, but instead sneaked to a love nest in the apartment just above his own.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS REEL

HE WILL SUCCEED the late Senator Knox in the United States Senate. It is predicted that Major David A. Reed will also be elected for a full term beginning next March.

C. SIMMONS

TURNING ON THE WATER to form the Mirror Pool at the Lincoln Memorial in Potomac Park, dedicated with elaborate ceremony today, with President Harding and a distinguished gathering present. The Mirror Pool extends from Seventeenth to Twenty-third street and in it the reflection of the beautiful memorial will be visible at night.

A POLE VAULTING AUTO is owned by J. C. Moses, of Hoboken, N. J. When traffic got too hot for it near Hyattsville, Md. Sunday, it climbed a pole. No one was hurt.

WASHINGTON AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS! The Times is desirous of publishing some of your pictures on this page. Send in news or action shots and you will be paid for them, if used. For each photograph used The Times will pay $3. For each photograph retained for future use $2 will be paid. The photographs must be exclusive to The Times. They must be clear prints and illustrate a news happening or recent event in the National Capital. A Washingtonian walking along the street is not news, but if you snap him casting a vote—then you've got something. When you send in pictures be sure to write your name and address, and a description of the event, on back of it, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you want the pictures returned to you.

See the News of the World AT ALL LEADING THEATERS SHOWING INTERNATIONAL NEWS Released by Universal Film Exchanges